Brown Palace Hotel Filled with Easter Delights

DENVER (March 23, 2011) – Delights await those seeking more than just chocolates and sweets this Easter – although, The Brown Palace has plenty of those too. These Easter treats take the form of breakfast with the Easter bunny, champagne brunch and afternoon tea.

At Breakfast with the Easter Bunny, little ones will enjoy a child-sized buffet with breakfast favorites, an Easter egg hunt, and photos with the Easter Bunny himself, Saturday, April 23. Children 5 and under are *$10.95, adults are *$33.95.

The perfect excuse for patent leather shoes and satin dresses is afternoon tea this Easter. Patrons will enjoy a pot of properly brewed tea accompanied by house-made scones, savory tea sandwiches, and a delightful array of pastries. Children 12 and under start at *$17.50, adults start at *$35. Sunday's Easter tea will feature a live jazz trio.

For a lavish indulgence, Easter brunch at Ellyngton's, will feature a wide selection of egg and waffle creations; cooked- and carved-to-order items; a large salad, seafood and sushi presentation; and chef-prepared desserts including a vanilla crème brulee with the hotel's own honey, derived from their rooftop honeybee colony. Starting at *$58.95 per person. (Children are *$17.95.)

Make a night of it! These great packages combine two Easter favorites with a relaxing overnight stay.

Easter Enchantment includes an overnight stay and Easter Sunday brunch for two adults on April 24. Starting from *$249.

Jellybean Dreams includes an overnight stay and Breakfast with the Easter Bunny for two adults and two children on April 23. Starting from *$275.

**Does not include tax and gratuity.*
